

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

First woman jury in California acquitted Editor King of printing indecent story in Watts News. And he had fought woman suffrage.

Lady Colin Campbell died in London yesterday. Lady Colin was an authoress of note, but her fame rests on divorce suit in which husband bracketed her with Duke of Marlborough.

Federal grand jury seems to be intensely curious as to that cute little wheat corner of last May. Armour Grain company going into mourning—and hoping to get off without going anywhere else.

Salary of judge — $5,000. Amount Tammany candidates can afford to obtain nomination—$36,000. ??????? and then again ????

After having been reviewed by the people, Taft yesterday reviewed the fleet.

We are glad that Postmaster General Hitchcock—no one has married him overnight—changed his mind about destroying all letters addressed to Santa Claus this year. They will be sent to charitable institutions.

Prince Pignatelli d'Arragon appeared on Fifth avenue wearing three feathers, green, blue and white, in brown plush hat. They'll get him yet.

Billy Papke says he has quit the ring. Just as well after that fight with Bob Moha.

John W. Guy, 79, and father of 32 children, is dying at Cape Charles, Va.

"God has been good to me and allotted me a long life. Let me die smoking," said Abraham Isaacs, 106 years, San Francisco. He did.

Fire in business section, Becker, Minn., burned two small children of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Cox and caused loss of $22,500.

United States steel corporation going to investigate labor conditions. Probably it will find them too good.

Roosevelt says peace is curse of China. So!

Jennie Wilson, 48, and Frank Spencer, 17, eloped from Manlius, Ill. Coming to Chicago to get married. Frank's papa is coming too—with a slipper.

But you've got to hand it to the "Get-rich-quick" Great Lakes Dredging company.

Italian commander in Tripoli says Italian soldiers lost their heads, and gives this as excuse for butchery of old men, women and children. Emotional insanity again.

Prince Chun doesn't seem to be enthusiastic about that suggestion of the government that he go into a corner and hang himself.

Willie Randolluf Hearst has wished himself on the Democratic party again, and that collection of patriots now understands the delicacy of Damocles' position.

Elevated owes city $1,465,200 as share of profits for advertising—and is liking to go on owing it.

Mrs. Gertrude L. Foster, Brooklyn, opened hubby's trunk while he was in Danville. Found